

Notes on the 2019 competition

Together we're better - The Swiss Youth and Future prize 2019

Thank you for your interest in the competition for the Future Prize for young people of Switzerland. Please read the following information carefully. When you submit your project, you declare at the same time that you accept the conditions.

Eligibility

Anyone under 35 who holds a Swiss passport or who resides in Switzerland is eligible to take part. All participants will present their project at the Annual Swiss Development Cooperation Conference on 21 June 2019 in Fribourg.

Submission of a project

Please complete the form on www.sdc.admin.ch/togetherwerebetter-en. The comprehensive project description – electronically uploaded together with an image -- provides answers to the following questions:

- Origin: How did the project come about? Who initiated the project and why? When was it started?
- Project organisation: How does the project work?
- Impact: How wide an impact does the project have? Who does the project aim to reach? How many people are involved?
- Project budget: How will it be funded? Does any form of collaboration exist with an organisation?

The comprehensive project description comes in the format: PDF, max. 5 pages, max. 2 MB. Please be aware: we cannot consider files submitted in hard copy. Image's format: min. 588 x 368 px, max. 2 MB.

Legal provisions

The jury's decision is final. The jury reserves the right not to award a prize if it considers that none of the submitted projects merits the prize in question.

The participants undertake to use any prize money they may win entirely for the benefit of the prize-winning project.

The participants guarantee the correctness of the information they give.

The participants undertake to respect all relevant copyrights.

No correspondence is conducted about the recognition and sponsorship prize.

Further on

You agree to present your project at the Annual Swiss Development Cooperation Conference on 21 June 2019 in the Forum Fribourg organized by SDC and SECO. Further information to follow.

You agree that the SDC can use the project and image material for other purposes.

Submission deadline: 31 March 2019.
